

PROF.PhD, MSc/ Dip. Momoko KITADA

WORLD MARITIME UNIVERSITY, Malmö, Sweden , Nippon Foundation Professorial Chair in Gender and Innovation; Head, Maritime Education & Training, Japan

<https://orcid.org/0000-0001-6668-8563>

mk@wmu.se

Scientific title: Professor PhD Social Sciences, Cardiff University

Studies: Ph.D. Cardiff University, M.Sc./Dip Social Science Research Methods, Cardiff University B.Sc. Maritime Sciences, Kobe University, CoC (3rd Deck Officer License).

Professional experience: former seafarer, joined World Maritime University (WMU) in 2011 and serves as an associate professor and secretariat of the WMU Women's Association (WMUWA) since 2014. She has 16 years of research experience in women in the maritime and ocean sectors. Dr. Kitada teaches subjects in maritime education and training (MET) and social and human element of maritime energy management (MEM). She applies participatory design (PD) approach to teaching and research in the area of capacity building, sustainability, and innovation.

Key points of interest in research: Human Element; Maritime Education and Training; Gender, Diversity & Inclusion; Innovation for Sustainable Development; Maritime Decarbonization & Energy Management