

ASSOC.PROF. WALTER K. NADOLNY

Marine Transportation and Environmental Management – State University of New York , SUNY Maritime College, New Jersey, USA

linkedin.com/in/walt-nadolny-54885a7

Scientific title: 2021-present, PROF. Emeritus on State University of New York, USA

Studies: State University of New York Maritime College; Tufts University; Harvards University; massachusetts Institute of Technology; Maritime institute of Technology and graduate Studies.

Professional experience: 2008-2017- Delegate to the International Maritime Organization IMO, Member of the Marine Environmental Protection Committee (Worked on Annex V MARPOL, Ballast Water Treatment, Polar code, Cruise ship regulations); 2010-2013-Vice chairman, marine transportation Departement; 2013-2015, Chairman, marine Transportation departyement,; 2012-2021, Faculty Presiding Officer; 2005-present, Assist. Prof.,Prof. Emeritus on SUNY Maritime College, Cherry Hill, New Jersey, United States ; Co-PI Evaluating Water Transportation Potential and Services to Assist Recovery in Haiti, Grant for Marine Defenders Project, 2018 (National Fish and Wildlife Foundation & SUNY Maritime College); Grant for Marine Defenders Project, 2012 (National Fish and Wildlife Foundation & SUNY Maritime College) Grant for Marine Environmental Education and Marine Pollution Reporting Focusing on NY-NJ.

Key points of interest in research: Marine Environmental Education and Marine Pollution, Marine Transportation, Environmental management.